

Working Class Mozart

what's it all about???

Well, you silly turkey and cheese sandwich— let me tell you!

Working Class Mozart is a series of weirdly futuristic vignettes conceived as an experimental lo-fi art comedy.

Mozart is now blue collar and has to find his way through a neon underworld you dig? Writing symphonies doesn't pay like it used to and after a bad performance review by his robot boss, Mozart must decide what kind of worker he really is.

These cats Aaron Granlund and S M Huet put it all together. Here what we know.

EXPERIMENTAL SHORT

Running time: 4m 20s

Filmed on a Replay XD mini (HD) camera;

That is so informative
That is so informative
That is so informative

Yes, there's so much more. More than you can imagine!

You can send an email to workingclassmozart@gmail.com

Or you can visit www.workingclassmozart.com

Find us in the Yellow Pages